Couple Must Pay Bank $17,363

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court has ruled that W. D. and Dorothy May of Dallas must pay a $17,363 debt to the National Bank of Eastern Arkansas at Forrest City.

The verdict, delivered yesterday, upheld a finding of the Jefferson Chancery Court. Both couples rejected a contention of the Mays that there had been fraud and collusion.

The Supreme Court said the indebtedness grew out of a loan.

By a 4 to 3 vote, the Supreme Court reversed and remanded a Circuit Court judgment of $5,000 for Chester P. Agee from Washington Standard Life Insurance Co.

The suit grew out of death of Agee's infant daughter, who was insured under an endowment policy.

There was a dispute over the proper amount of the policy and the company sought unsuccessfully to have the case transferred to Chancery Court.

The Supreme Court majority agreed that the case should be transferred.

2,800 Influenza Cases in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Health Department said yesterday about 2,800 to 3,000 cases of influenza have been reported in the state during the past few weeks.

Dr. A. M. Washburn, director of the department's division of communicable disease control, said the heaviest concentration of cases was in Yell, Perry and Conway counties.

Washburn said all of the cases may not actually have been flu. He said most of the victims were young adults and elderly persons.

Two Teachers Shot to Death by Principal

HARTFORD CITY, Ind. (AP)—A 44-year-old grade school principal shot two teachers to death today as their pupils screamed in horror.

He held off pursuers with a shotgun and fled in his aging car, touching off a manhunt.

Fifth graders in the William Reed School were bewildered, then shocked when Principal Leonard Redden stalked in with a shotgun, shouting "Hang me, will you!" and shot Miss Harriet Robson, 52, in the right chest.

Then the principal walked up a ramp to the sixth grade room of another veteran teacher, Mrs. Minnie McFarren, 62, and killed her with a point-blank shot in the face.

There were about 30 children in each classroom. Back in the corridor, Redden waved the gun at Silas McCaffrey, a janitor, and Ralph Grimme, another sixth grade teacher who ran to see why Mrs. McFarren's children were screaming.

Grimme and McCaffrey chased Redden out of the building but he threatened them with the gun again and drove away as McCaffrey pleaded, "Don't shoot me." Continued on Page Two

Groundhog Is Slated to Act Today

QUARRYVILLE, Pa. (AP)—In Pennsylvania's famed haunts grownup men today put aside rowdiness and dignity to spy on a quaint, often cranky little animal supposed to be a weather prophet.

For this is Groundhog Day and nowhere is the legend of the groundhog's prophetic powers more deeply rooted in folk culture. And nowhere has the groundhog cult been at it for so long and with such astonishing vigor as in Pennsylvania.

At its simplest, groundhoggy means that if the shaggy, rheumy-eyed oracle pops out of hibernation and sees his shadow, winter will last at least six more weeks. If he doesn't see his shadow, then hail shining spring, and fast.

On such barebones thousands of Pennsylvanians, formed into clubs and coteries, have grown a flesh rich in invention, fantasy and friskiness.

At Quarryville, in Lancaster County, heart of the Pennsylvania Dutch country, the Slumbering Groundhog Lodge claims to be the most rugged, zealous and picturesque in the land.

Under the leadership of its hibernating governor, Robert Herr, a pump maker normally, the lodge brothers turn out at dawn in tall silk hats and long white nightgowns, some on foot, some on horseback, many aboard a train on a four-mile long abandoned railroad taken over for this purpose. They carry shepherds' crooks and wear heavy chains and huge golden keys around their necks on their chests.

In Western Pennsylvania, the devotees of Punxsutawney Pete, who for years has forecast weather from famed Gobbler's Knob, beside the Quarryville boys as copy cats. Quarryville retorts that whatever age difference there may be is slight, and what's more, its members seek out the groundhog properly whereas the Punxsutawney club just pretends to do so.

Elsewhere in Pennsylvania, other doings of a rare order are the forays of "Grundow Numbat Ains on da Lecha," which means "Groundhog No. 1 on the Lehigh," and the sometimes solemn, sometimes facetious sizing up of groundhog reactions at the Philadelphia Zoo.

Mrs. Alta Davis, a son, I. H. Davis of Emmet; two daughters, Mrs. Rayburn Asim and Mrs. Robert Lambert of Baton Rouge, La. a sister, Mrs. Ola Harmon of Texarkana and a brother, Milt Davis of Emmet.

U. S. Sergeant Is Killed on Maneuvers

SULBACH — Rosenberg, Germany (AP)—A U. S. sergeant on maneuvers was killed today when his truck skidded off an icy road. This brought the casualty toll to "Operation Winter Shield" to ten dead. Eleven have been injured.

"Aggression" forces in the German-American war game continued to advance, but NATO troops toughened their resistance with a new defense line.

Senate Starts Debate to Oust the Poll Tax

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—After a week of debate, the Senate starts voting today on measures aimed at eliminating the poll tax as a voting requirement.

Although many Southerners oppose such a move in any form, the principal argument is over whether it should be done by a constitutional amendment or by a simple act of Congress.

The first test was expected on a proposal of Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-Fla.) to submit to the states a constitutional amendment banning the poll tax in federal elections.

Holland wants this added as another section to a different constitutional amendment proposal of Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.). Kefauver's proposal would give governors the power to fill House vacancies if more than half the membership of that body is wiped out in a disaster such as a nuclear attack.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), who opposes the Holland proposal, conceded Monday that it was sure of adoption.

It will take only a majority vote to tie the anti-poll tax amendment into Kefauver's measure. However on final Senate passage, a constitutional amendment has to muster a two-thirds vote.

If the Holland proposal is carried as expected, Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) plans to offer as a substitute for the entire legislative package a bill to ban the poll tax by simple statute.

Javits' measure has drawn far greater Southern ire than Holland's plan. The New Yorker appears to lack enough votes to put it over.

Southerners opposing any federal move against the poll tax continued to argue that regulation of election procedures should be left entirely up to the states.

Russell said that Georgia had abolished the poll tax and that he supported this action. But he insisted that Congress should not make it in this field.

Five states still require voters to pay such a levy: Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia.

3 Areas Are Annexed to City of Hope

Hope City Directors last night passed a resolution taking in three areas for annexation — Southland Heights, 14th Street and along Highway 67 east.

The annexations, already okayed by the County Court, will add a large amount of territory and possibly 200 persons to the city's population. The group also agreed to advance $495 for abstract work for the East Side Sewer Improvement District.

As soon as the city meets requirements which demands removal of a couple of parking spaces, the Arkansas Highway Department will erect four-way stop signs on No. 29 at the Second Street crossing.

After a lengthy discussion the group agreed to charge only half fee for fire truck runs outside the city limits when no connections was made. If a connection is made the fee will remain the same.

The group discussed several routine items before adjourning.

Adenaur Is Accused by Khrushchev

MOSCOW (AP)—Accusing West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of sponsoring harsh laws outlawing communism, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has written him: "You actually occupy the same position occupied by Hitler."

This was the latest in a series of heated exchanges by the two leaders since they began a correspondence last August. Khrushchev's letter was delivered to Bonn last Friday and published Monday by Tass, the Soviet news agency.

The Soviet Premier repeated his threat to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany, whose government Adenauer insists is only a Soviet puppet. Khrushchev also renewed his demand for the Western Allies to get out of West Berlin.

These experts said they considered the statements as a propaganda campaign against West Germany—which does not have atomic weapons either.

The East German Communist chief, Walter Ulbricht, sent West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer a letter a week ago saying he would ask the Soviets to put rockets "at our disposal" unless West German atomic rearmament stopped.

Then Ulbricht called a news conference and said that if he did not get talks with the West Germans in two weeks, he would take protective measures.

Neighbors May Have to Use the Fox Call

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—If 6-year-old Timothy Brennan is to grow up, his neighbors had better learn the swamp fox call.

Timothy and his three brothers were playing "swamp fox" Monday evening near their suburban home. The idea was for Timothy to hide in the woods, and the others would find him by following his call of the swamp fox.

The swamp fox call is sort of a howl, like—well, like the swamp fox.

Timothy howled and howled. Nobody heard him.

Before long about 250 volunteers were out tramping through the woods looking for Timothy. They found him four hours later, chilled but unafraid, and sound asleep on a knoll.

"I called until I was hoarse," he told the searchers reproachfully.

Timothy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Brennan, weren't too surprised at the youngster getting lost. Once he took the wrong bus at school and wound up in the neighborhood church.

Asked why he didn't notice he was on the wrong bus, Timothy pondered and said: "I wondered who all those strange kids were."

Children Victims of Veneral Disease Jump

MEMPHIS (AP)—The greatest percentage increase in venereal disease is among children aged 10 to 14. An Atlanta public health official reported at a venereal disease seminar here.

Dr. William J. Brown was among the main speakers at the seminar, sponsored by the U. S. Public Health Service, which opened today.

Some 350 doctors, nurses and field workers from 20 states attended.

Dr. Brown, chief of the venereal disease branch of the Communicable Disease Center, Atlanta, indicated the number of cases among teenagers was small, despite the high percentage increase.

But he cited figures showing the incidence was greatest among teenagers and young adults under 25.

"Of 240,000 cases of infectious syphilis and gonorrhea last year, 50 per cent occurred in teenagers and young adults under 25; twenty-two per cent occurred in persons under 20," he said.

Others in attendance at the meeting were: Mrs. A. W. Thompson, Mrs. Tom DeWoody, Mrs. W. T. Clark, Mrs. Tony Atrom, Gurdoda, Mrs. David Campbell, Mrs. Mike Berg, Camden, Andy G. Ringer, Mrs. G. W. Harrison, Mrs. Julius Miller, El Dorado.

DeGaulle Seeks Free Hand to Rule by Decree

By ULYS YATES

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle's government sought a free hand from Parliament today to rule by decree for 14 months in the wake of the abortive Algerian rightist uprising.

Two more deputies in the French National Assembly were arrested on warrants charging lack of security of the state, the charge on which Deputy Pierre Lagallarde is held as the military chief of the uprising.

Jean-Baptiste Lagallarde, 41, a right-wing Parisian deputy, and Mourad Kaouah, 40, a Moslem deputy from Algiers, were locked up along with Lagallarde.

A French examining magistrate, a sort of one-man grand jury, questioned a long list of persons suspected of shipping arms to the French insurgents.

A government bill to be submitted to a special session of the National Assembly and the Senate asks for special powers to govern by decree until April 1, 1961. Parliament would be in recess until that date, when it would meet to ratify or disapprove the Cabinet decrees issued in the interim.

Both houses were expected to grant the Cabinet's request, but strong criticism was expected from the right-wing extremists.

The call for special powers came in the wake of the collapse Monday of the right-wing "colonists" revolt against De Gaulle's promise of self-determination for the North African territory still in the throes of a year-old revolt by Moslem nationalists.

The National Assembly was not expected to vote on the government's request until after midnight (8 p. m. EST), and Senate action may not come until late Wednesday.

One of the chief leaders of the French insurgents, Pierre Lagallarde, was flown to Paris Monday night and clapped into Santo Prison less than 12 hours after he

Two Teachers

Larry. School officials said they knew of no trouble between Redden and the two teachers, who were among the oldest in the city's schools.

However, they said Redden had been losing weight in the last month and had become increasingly nervous.

All schools in the city were closed for the rest of the day after the shooting on order of E. Phillips Blackburn, city school superintendent.

Redden's wife is a business education teachers in the Mississippi High School in nearby Gas City. They have two sons, Bruce, a sophomore in Hartford City High School, and Dennis, a third grader.

State police sent one of their planes from Fort Wayne, 30 miles to the north, to try to spot the 40-year-old principal. He was believed to be driving a gray-green 1932 Ford somewhere in the Hartford City area.

Police first thought Redden might have headed toward the Mississippi High School at Gas City, 16 miles west, where his wife teaches. However, state police located Mrs. Redden in a Hartford City doctor's office, after she had reported herself ill today.

Both Miss Robson, 52, and Mrs. McFarren, 57, had taught in the William Reed School in Hartford City several years.

had marched the remnants of his forces out from behind the barricades in Algiers and surrendered.

Lagardere, a deputy in the National Assembly, was told he was being charged with an attack on the security of the state. Deputies are immune from arrest unless caught committing a crime, and Lagardere apparently made no effort to plead immunity.

Another insurgent leader, Algiers cafe proprietor Joseph Ortiz, was a fugitive. A warrant was out for his arrest.

De Gaulle could have asked that the special powers be voted to him personally, but under the constitution Parliament then would have remained in session to approve his decrees. With Premier Michel Debre's Cabinet getting the special powers and Parliament going to recess, De Gaulle will not have to deal with the National Assembly and the Senate while working to prevent a recurrence of the Algerian uprising.

Troops in Algiers moved through the area around the university and post office where thousands of insurgents barricaded themselves a week ago Sunday in defiance of the Paris government. Munitions and explosives stockpiled by the insurgents were loaded on army trucks and driven off. Streets and buildings were searched for bombs and body traps.

Paratroopers who had ringed the area kept the public out with cordons of trucks and barbed wire. The public will not be allowed into the area until all traces of the insurrection have been eliminated.

Work gangs were tearing down the rebels' barricades and repaving the streets from which the insurgents ripped paving stones for their barricades.

Elsewhere in the Algerian capital life returned to normal. Stores were open for the first time in a week. Public transport functioned except in the cordoned off area.

Two Negroes Held in Try at Burglary

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two Negro youths were charged yesterday with attempted bank robbery after one of them handed a First National Bank woman teller a note that threatened to blow her "to hell" with nitroglycerin if she did not hand over $20,000.

Police said Joe Nathan Nelson, 17, of nearby College Station, Ark., was identified by the teller, Mary Jane Horman, as the one who handed her the note.

He took off when she walked to a head teller and showed him the note. Police said, but was arrested a few minutes later by a bank detective when he emerged from a bank washroom.

The second youth, Harvey Tate, 16, was arrested later near his home. Officers said Nelson identified Tate as the one who devised the scheme and wrote the note.

Both were arraigned before U.S. Commissioner John Cones and were held in lieu of $1,000 bond each.

Police found a bottle containing an unidentified liquid in a wastebasket in the washroom. The only weapon found on Nelson was a straight razor.

Negro Couple Gives $10,000 to Museum

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Floyd Brown, the founder and long-time head of the Fargo Training School in Monroe County, has announced that he and his wife are donating $10,000 for a museum at the school.

He said the money represented most of their savings.

Brown founded the school in 1919 as the Fargo Agricultural and Industrial School, a self-help school for Negro boys and girls.

The institution later was taken over by the state and is now a school for Negro girls.

Brown and Mrs. Brown, who was the school matron, now live in retirement at Pine Bluff.

Brown was a young graduate of Tuskegee Institute of Alabama when he founded the Fargo school.

Will Try to Sign Champ for Benefit

MEMPHIS (AP)—The chairman of the Memphis Easter Seal Campaign said he was going to New York today to try and sign up world heavyweight boxing champion Ingemar Johansson for an exhibition bout here.

Bill Loeb, a Memphis laundryman, said: "I will pay the price to get him down here. I think he'll come."

Loeb said he would try to get Johansson to come to Memphis to fight for the benefit of the Easter Seal Campaign.

Johansson is a Swedish boxer who has won the world heavyweight title twice.

He is currently undefeated and has won 12 world titles.

Egypt Troops Take Positions Along Border

CAIRO (AP)—Egyptian army troops today were reported to have taken up positions along the U. N.-patrolled Egyptian-Israeli frontier in the Sinai Desert as a result of clashes between Israeli and Syrian troops.

The newspaper, Al-Ahram reported Egyptian troops that have moved up all along Israel's western desert frontier in the past three days. The paper said the Egyptian army had been placed on a state of emergency so that it and forces in the Syrian province of the United Arab Republic would be "fully prepared to meet all eventualities." All military leaves were cancelled.

In Oslo, the Norwegian army command announced, Norwegian troops serving with the U. N. force would be pulled out immediately if serious fighting developed between the U. A. R. and Israel. The Norwegian command said its troops were on the Egyptian-Israeli border for police duty only.

Daily clashes since Friday between Israeli and Syrian troops prompted the dispatch of the Egyptian forces to the Sinai frontier, where men of the U. N. Emergency Force maintain preventive patrols as an aftermath of the Israeli invasion of 1956.

So far there has been no action on the Israeli-Egyptian frontier. Four days of shooting which renewed fears of a Middle East outbreak have been limited to Israel's northernmost frontier, where a demilitarized zone separates Israel and the Syrian province of the U. A. R.

Russia Sending Top Man to Cuba

HAVANA (AP)—The Kremlin is sending one of its top officials — and salesmen — to Havana this week to open the Soviet Scientific and Cultural Exhibition.

Moscow newspapers said First Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan had accepted an invitation to open the Soviet exhibition Thursday. It was not known how the invitation was relayed since Cuba and the Soviet Union do not maintain diplomatic relations.

Mikoyan is one of the most prominent Soviet officials and has been in charge of Soviet trade missions to many countries.

The exhibition, which will run for several months, will display a wide range of Soviet scientific and cultural achievements.

It is expected that Mikoyan will be accompanied by a large number of Soviet scientists and artists.

The exhibition is part of a series of cultural exchanges between the Soviet Union and other countries.

It is hoped that the exhibition will help to improve relations between the Soviet Union and Cuba.

The exhibition will be held in Havana, Cuba.

Arkansas Qualifies for Air Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A non-governmental research agency has recommended a program of federal aid to education confined to the poorer states.

If the proposal of the Committee for Economic Development had been in effect in 1957-58 federal grants of $44 million dollars would have gone to 19 states.

Arkansas would have received 37 millions of this total.

The CED said its program was not concerned with racial integration or segregation.

Any legislation along this line should be handled separately, it said.

DOROTHY DIX

Which Shall It Be,
Mother or Steady?

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am going steady with the boy I used to go with eight months ago. My mother doesn't want me to see him any more. He's in the Marine Corps and 19 years old. I'm 17. After he left for Mechanics School in North Carolina, I wasn't sure I wanted to go steady. I wrote him this. Next day I wrote another letter asking his forgiveness.

After several seven-and-eight-page love letters from him, I received a thin letter calling the whole thing quits. He was engaged to be married. I felt hurt, of course, but what could I expect after the way I treated him? He came to say good-bye. We still loved each other.

He and his fiancée broke up. Finally we started going steady again. Now my mother says if I don't feel ashamed, she does for me. I always have done what my mother said but for once I disagree. I finish school early this year and plan to work till I'm 18 — which is soon, then move to some other town and support myself. Can you help me do what is right? — Desperate

Dear Desperate: Marry in haste, repent at leisure, is still a sound warning. Instinctively, your mother may be right when she objects. Sit down, think this through, then count ten before you act. Marriage isn't brushed off lightly.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I'm 19 years old and write to four service men, but know I can't have my cake and eat it. Two are just friends. The third I'm going steady with — the fourth I've been dating a year and a half. The one I go steady with comes home weekends. The one I've been dating will be here the whole month. One time he jilted me for another girl but I forgave him. The other two are good friends but don't know I go steady. Do you think it wise to tell them? I may be a mixed-up teenager, but I do need advice. — Chris

Dear Chris: The old adage still holds: "All's fair in love and war." Have fun with the boys. You've still got plenty of time ahead to be serious.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

CHAPTER XX

When I reached the building in which my office was located I found a dray at the door on which was a modern safe of medium size. Pete Boss, the drayman, said he had thought I never would get there and that they had been waiting for an hour.

"But," I said, "I've bought no safe."

"That," Pete said, "is what you think. But here's the safe, all paid for, to be delivered to your office. Paid for in cash money by Madam Janeway."

I had my lunch downtown and spent a long afternoon in study and in waiting for clients to present themselves. At five o'clock I walked home. Again Lottie was raking leaves. I would have avoided her, but she pinned me down.

"And how," she asked, "is the burgeoning law practice today?"

"Big words," I said. "Know what they mean?"

"You would be surprised half to death," she retorted, "if you knew what words I know, and other things."

"Ladylike, I hope."

"Useful a n y o w," she said. "Are you going to take that damage case?"

I told her about Madam Janeway's scrapbook and my interview with Gideon Weeks.

She gave quick, little, jerky snaps of her head. "Then the day wasn't wasted," she said.

"Also," said I a bit boastfully, "I found out something all the police in Syracuse have missed."

"My, what a long tail our cat has got!" she jeered.

"I found out the identity of that murdered man in our barn."

"Why, Mr. Pinkerton?" she exclaimed. "Who was he?"

"A man," I told her, "named the Duke."

"That makes everything clear. A medicine-show man?"

"Yes," I said. "They think he was strangled by another man they know, called Bigfoot Swede."

"And what, Mr. Pinkerton, do you propose to do with this knowledge?"

"Keep it to myself while I think it over."

She blinked at me. "Little playmate," she said, "if I were you I'd keep it to myself longer than that. I'd lie a stone around it and sink it in oblivion. At this exact minute, Orin, I would estimate that it is the most dangerous bit of knowledge existing in Syracuse."

It was mid-morning of a crisp November day when Madam Janeway, accompanied by Lottie Fox, rapped on the door of my law office and came in to sit down in my two chairs. Two lovely women never graced a room.

Madam said, resting her slender gloved hand on the arm of her chair, "this is not exactly law business that I have come about, yet I would be gratified if, as my representative, you would handle the details."

"How may I serve you?" I asked, and Lottie wrinkled her nose in derision of my formality.

"There is much distress in this

Ex-Mayor Dies at El Dorado

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Jacob H. (Jack) Wilson, 76, former El Dorado mayor and state legislator, died unexpectedly today at Little Rock.

The body was returned here tomorrow afternoon.

Wilson served two terms as mayor of El Dorado between 1927 and 1931.

He also served in the state Senate.

In 1923 he was president of the Senate.

That was before Arkansas had an elected lieutenant governor. The president of the Senate presided over that body as the lieutenant governor does now.

Wilson was a retired railroad conductor.

Survivors include his widow, a daughter and two sons.

"People are cold and hungry,"

"there is," I answered, "distress all over the nation." Which was true. We were in the midst of the most severe hard times the country had experienced since the great Panic of 1897. Banks had toppled, business houses were bankrupt, unemployment was severe, and the end was not in sight. People blamed it upon the manipulations of men like Gould and Don't Drew and Jim Fisk. Perhaps they were right.

"On Thanksgiving Day," said Madam, "I would pleasure me to feed the hungry."

"Madam," I exclaimed, "this will be a sensation. Nothing like it ever has been done before. There will be no publicity, perhaps more than you have foreseen. From which a fastidious lady may shrink."

It was Lottie who replied, her level eyes fixed upon mine with an expression which I could not fathom. "Orin," she said, "you are wrong to try to daunt Madam. Her mind is made up to do this charity. Hatred as the notoriety may be, Madam will endure it."

I could have sworn that her left eye quivered, if she had been less demure and dignified as she sat there. I should have called it a hazy, hazy wink.

Madam Janeway shrugged. "I suppose a medium of notoriety is unavoidable," she said resignedly.

"By the way, Madam," I said, "that safe!" I pointed to the strongbox which she had caused to be delivered to my office.

"Oh, that," she said with a shrug. "I thought it might come in handy. You don't mind, do you? A lawyer should have a safe to keep the private papers of his clients secure."

"True," I said, "provided he is the custodian of private papers." I paused and smiled. "But without the combination it is quite useless."

"You haven't the combination?" she exclaimed.

"It was not given to me," I told her.

"How extraordinary," she said, and rose. The combination was not given to me nor was it again referred to. She returned to the subject of the barbecue. "You will commence making plans," she said imperatively as she left.

Lottie was bent to follow her out into the hall, but turned back to pick up the reticule she had dropped on the floor.

"There's another kind of Greek philosophy and I don't know who invented it," she said, twinkling her eyes at me. "I think that they called it cynicism."

Syria Charged by Israel Leader

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Premier David Ben-Gurion charged today Syrian soldiers disguised as farmers repeatedly penetrated Israeli territory in the demilitarized zone near the Sea of Galilee.

As border tension mounted in the fourth straight day of shooting, Ben-Gurion told Parliament in Jerusalem it was "necessary to destroy the village used by the Syrians as a base for their incursions."

Israeli and Syrian forces clashed both on the ground and in the air. An Army spokesman said two fighter planes drove off four Syrian MIG jets after a dog fight over Metuliah, near the border of northern Galilee.

A spokesman in Damascus claimed four Israeli Super-Bysters tore jets engaged Syrian planes and one Israeli plane was shot down and another damaged. He claimed the Israeli planes flew over Syria.

State's Second Semester Starts

MONSBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State College's second semester of the 1959-60 school year got under way on schedule today without influenza problems. "About 95 per cent of the student body had been inoculated against the disease," said a college official.

The school paid for the inoculations, estimated to cost about $100 for the 2,000-odd students. Hostess shots were given last week when the students registered for the new semester.

Across The Counter

Duffie D. Booth

"The Achilles heel of most business and professional men's insurance program," I remarked to Sam, "is adequate health and accident insurance."

"Recently," I added, "the insurance press cited a tragic example. A comparatively young lawyer suffered a coronary which left him crippled at home for eight months. At the time he thought he was well-insured, since he had a Homeowner's policy, adequate liability insurance (both auto and personal) and over $100.00 of life insurance. However, he had NO coverage for a disabling sickness. The staggering bills left him in poor financial condition. His 'nest egg' was quickly exhausted. The mortgage on his home was increased. Even his life insurance was impaired because he had to borrow all the loan value of the policies."

"He is bitterly critical of all his insurance advisers for not seeing that he had a properly balanced program. That's why," I concluded, "I wanted to mention this to you. We would hate to find our clients in this same position if a catastrophic illness or accident should occur."

"Sam nodded his head in agreement. 'I think you've spotted a real gap in my insurance program. Prepare your recommendations.'"

"May we prepare 'recommendations' for YOU as well?"

Foster Is Back as Porkers Go After Tech

LUMBROCK, Tex. (AP)—Arkansas' Razorbacks tonight will have the same five men that started the season when they go for a share of the Southwest Conference basketball lead in a game with Texas Tech.

Junior guard Pat Foster, who hasn't played in a conference game since suffering an attack of appendicitis in the pre-season tournament at Houston, will be back in the lineup for the Hogs.

With him will be 6-6 Alan Morrison, 6-3 Clyde Rhodes, 6-6 Ronnie Garris and 6-4 Jerry Carlton. Arkansas holds a 31 conference record, a half-game behind league-leading Texas A&M.

The Aggies went into overtime last night to defeat the University of San Francisco 60-59 at San Francisco. They meet Santa Clara tonight.

Southern Methodist, which is tied with Arkansas for second place, meets Texas Christian tomorrow night at Fort Worth. The Ponies take on Arkansas Saturday night at Fayetteville.

Texas Tech holds a 2-2 conference record but beat TCU Saturday and is considered extra-tough in its own gym. Gene Arrington is the top Raider scorer. He holds a 19 point average.

James Wiley, 6-5, and Roger Henning, 6-4, are two of the top rebounders. Steve Lee, 6-2, mounts 5-10, and Arrington, 6-4, round out the starting Raider lineup.

Arkansas, which lost to Tulsa last week in its first post-exam action, will be missing sharp sophomore guard Skipper Coffman, who is ineligible this semester because of grades.

Rules Phillips Co. Court in Error

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court ruled today that Phillips Circuit Court erroneously rejected some testimony as to the value of 1.94 acres of the Highway Department condemned near Marvell.

The high court sent the case back for a new trial.

The trial jury awarded Mrs. Emma Louise Lutzen by $550 — the value fixed by highway appraisers.

She contended the land was worth more than $2,000.

Her husband was not permitted to testify on ground that he was not an expert.

"True he was not an expert witness," the Supreme Court said, "but he did show that he was familiar with land values in that vicinity."

The opinion was written by Justice Paul Ward.

Justice Ed F. McFaddin dissented.

Robertson Sets a New Scoring Mark

CINCINNATI (AP)—Through high school and college, All-American Oscar Robertson has amassed a file cabinet load of honors, awards and scoring records in school, conference, arena, state and NCAA play.

When he swept past the three-year scoring record for major college players Monday night, Oscar was quiet, unemotional. It was one mark among many.

It was a good night for Oscar. He scored 36 points; he and his teammates beat Drake handsily, 96-61; his mother was on hand and so was the girl he plans to marry next summer.

He started the game needing only four points to break the mark of 2,538 points set by Frank Selvy after 78 games with Furman, ending in 1954. He had the four points after 5½ minutes.

If Robertson is explosive on the basketball floor, he is conversational in the locker room. The Calvin Coolidge of college basketball had little to say after the game.

"You really set the record in great style, Oscar," said one fan. "Thanks."

"How do you feel about setting a new three-year scoring record, Oscar?"

"Were you any more nervous about going into this game than in any other game?" asked a reporter.

"Naw, never felt any different."

"You had a great night from the free throw line," said one man. "It's about time," said Oscar, who sank 18 of 20 tries.

The victory was the 15th in 18 Cincinnati games this season and coach George Smith at halftime came onto the playing floor and gave Oscar the game ball used to break the record. He called Robertson, "the greatest basketball player in the world."

Oscar had only his usual faint smile and accepted the ball wordlessly.

Garland Grid Lettermen Are Honored

Students and teachers of Garland School honored the school football team last week with Charles Gough, and Coach B. J. Westbrook as honor guests. Mr. Gough presented the trophy, donated by Stewart's Jewelry Store, to the Coach.

Monroe Pardue, Bobby Samuels, Leland Lavender, Tommy Cox, Earl Ray Cox, Charlie Baisson, Mitchell Warren, and Mickey Holt.

The cheerleaders, Lynn Russell, Amelia Gaines, Susan Rogers, Vickie Polard, Brenda Bain and Susan Forester gave some yells at the end of the program.

Drake Proves No Trouble for Cincinnati

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's great Oscar Robertson, that three-year major college basketball scoring record finally in the bag, can turn his attention today to the all-time scoring mark for big school players.

Such a guy is the Big O that he's all but a cinch to bust the next one in his next game, Saturday against Houston.

All-American Oscar flipped in 3 points in a 96-61 rout of Drake Monday night and shattered the three-year record of 2,538 points set in 78 games by Frank Selvy of Furman.

Robertson, heading for an unprecedented third straight national major scoring title, now has 2,571 points in 75 games as a varsity player for the top-ranked Bearcats, an average of 34.3 a game. This year he's traveling at a 35.2 average with 609 points in 17 games.

So it ought to be easy for Oscar to get the 17 points Saturday he needs to break the major all-time career record of 2,587. It was set in four seasons up to 1955, covering 104 games, by Dickie Hemric of Wake Forest.

Only three points shy of Selvy's mark as he started play Monday night, he took Oscar by 5½ minutes and two breakaway layups to establish the record. He went on to collect nine fields goals and 18 of 20 free throws as Cincinnati nailed its 16th victory in 17 tries and pulled into a first-place tie at 5-1 with Drake in the Missouri Valley Conference. At halftime, the game ball was presented to Robertson.

Fourth-ranked Ohio State (14-2) won its sixth Big Ten game without a loss, 99-52 over Michigan; All-American Jerry West scored 39 points and grabbed 23 rebounds as fifth-ranked West Virginia (17-2) routed VMI 101-71, tenth-ranked Texas A&M (13-1) beat San Francisco, 99-65 in overtime and Idaho State (15-3) and Providence (11-3) extended their winning streaks in other Monday games.

Idaho State defeated Creighton 82-65 for its 11th straight — the longest streak running, while Providence walloped Niagara 68-43 for its eighth straight.

Lance Olson and Horace Walker each scored 24 points as Michigan State routed Minnesota, 84-63 and Indiana clipped Northwestern 76-58 in other Big Ten games. In the Big Eight, Colorado grabbed second place behind idle Kansas State with a 70-55 decision over Iowa State, and Nebraska won its first conference game and snapped a five-game losing streak 64-59 over Missouri.

Art Musselman's 24 points and 21 by Dick Jones triggered The Citadel's 84-55 Southern Conference record 5-2 by nipping Mississippi State 51-47 in overtime. Larry Pennington's 33 points helped Alabama to its first conference victory, 61-54 over Vanderbilt; Mississippi drubbed LSU 76-61, and Tennessee got 27 points from Glenn Campbell in an 84-68

Pea Ridge Land Deeded to U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of Arkansas officials today presented the government a proposed deed of transfer covering more than 4,200 acres for the Pea Ridge National Military Park in Arkansas.

Director Conrad L. Wirth, of the National Park Service said it was planned to seek fast action so that formal acceptance of a deed transferring the property from the state to the government can take place at Pea Ridge March 7.

Wirth said this was the first time the service has received such an area with the boundary lines established and all land within them already acquired for park purposes.

He said usually there are some private lands within the designated bound boundaries, which often cause difficulties in later years. The state appropriated $500,000, Neil Bohlinger of Little Rock, for purchase of the land.

The Arkansas group included: chairman of the state's Pea Ridge National Park Commission; Clayton Little of Bentonville, attorney for the commission; George H. Benjamin of Little Rock, coordinator of Civil War Centennial activities in Arkansas; and Hendrix Lackey of Mountain View, President of the Arkansas Automobile Dealers Assn.
